

The state of Indiana is protecting us from unsolicited telephone calls - it has worked well until now. We do not appreciate the fact that banking interests and lobbying groups are attempting to weaken our current laws. The federal guidelines for "established business relationships" do not apply to Indiana. Thank you.